USING THIS INDEX

Entries in this index are arranged in letter-by-letter alphabetical order, i.e. no attention is paid to spaces between words. Thus the entry 'Forte' comes before 'For the Eyes of the President Only'. Abbreviations are indexed as written (i.e. 'Mr' follows all 'Mo'-entries and comes before all 'Mu'-entries) with two exceptions: 'St' is indexed as if spelt out in full as 'Saint', and the various forms of 'Mac' are all indexed as if in fact spelt 'Mac'.

Words in italics are titles—either of articles in The Spectator or of books, magazines and newspapers, or of plays, films, operas, etc., reviewed or mentioned.

All leading articles and 'middle' articles are indexed by title, as are all books (under author and title), plays, films, operas, etc., which are either specifically reviewed or given extended notice.

In addition, every article is indexed under the subjects it deals with, usually with a brief indication of its main contents.

In order to save space and to group together references on similar subjects, a number of general headings are used, as well as the names of individual countries and organisations. Among the more important of these headings are:

Art	Conservative Party	Financial	Music and Opera
Ballet	Countryside	Labour Party	Parliament
Britain	Economic	Legal	Press
Christianity	Education	Medical	Television
Colour Problem	English Language	Middle East	Universities

Names and references which there is no room to index separately can usually be traced from entries under one of the many general headings.
